INTRODUCTION

These pieces were created after taking a road trip with my dad, Herbert Williams, to Boones Creek, Kentucky, in 2017. This trip inspired me to create during one of the most difficult times of my life. It will forever be special.

CREDITS

Murriam Nser | Construction Intern

Fiona Veronique Szende | Photographer

Gemini Blitz and DeeDee Dame | Models

Victor Varnado | Video + constant encouragement

Remi Odunsi | Make-up Artist

Abraham Perez | Production Assistant

Kadeem Lamorell | Graphic Design

Crystal Gregory + Charles J. Johnson | Creative Consultants

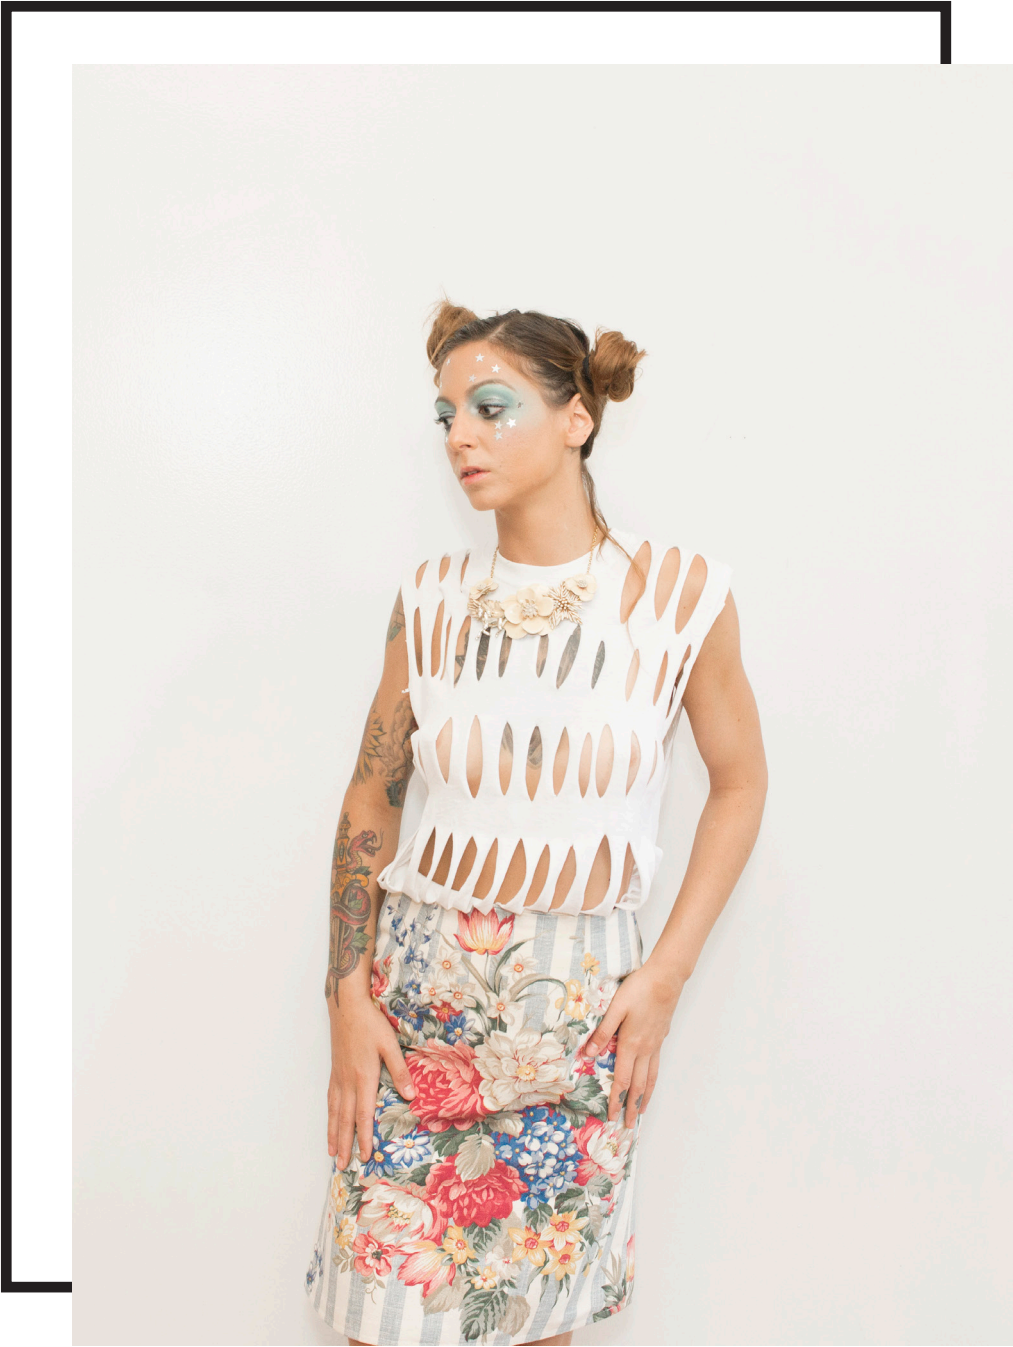

Thank you all from the bottom of my heart! This would not have happened
without your creative input and enthusiasm.

A special shoutout to my crazy kitten, Miles Ware, who almost died after swallowing a needle +
thread while I was designing these pieces.

ABOUT

Hello – I'm Lesley Ware an author, educator and personality who has written three books, Sew Fab: Sewing and Style for Young Fashionistas, My Fab Fashion Style File, and How to Be a Fashion Designer with publishers Laurence King and DK Books of London. I create teen fashion programs for The Parsons School of Design, The Costume Institute at The Metropolitan Museum of Art, Pioneer Works, Museum of the City of New York and other institutions in New York. I just finished designing my 1st full collection inspired by a road trip, to Kentucky, with my dad. I hope you enjoyed viewing it. Currently, I am designing my 2nd full collection inspired by silhouettes from the past.
